TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Proceedings of Fourth Day's Session at the High School

The fourth day of the Mason County Teachers' Institute was begun by singing "Jesus Saves," after which the devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. B. F. Chatham of the First M. E. Church, South, by reading the first ten verses of the sixth chapter of Galatians, followed by prayer.

Prof. Burton then discussed "Waste Processes in Teaching" in a way that should prove of great value to his hearers.

"Geography Teaching Outside of Books" was handled by Miss Agnes Guerin with that skill and profit to the Institute that all who know her expected.

W. P. King, President of the Mason County Teachers' Association, next briefly outlined the plans of the Association for the coming year, and named C. E. Turnipseed, Miss Nancy Kennan, Harry L. Beckett, Bert Pollitt and Miss Agnes Guerin a committee to arrange a program for the first meeting of the Association, which meets the second Saturday in October. Noon intermission.

Prof. Burton concluded his talk and work of the week by expressing his deep gratitude for the privilege of again being permitted to meet with the teachers of the great and historic county of Mason after an absence of three years.

Superintendent Wells said in view of the fact that this was probably the last Institute over which he would preside he feelingly thanked all the teachers.

Just as Superintendent Wells was about to adjourn the Institute for 1909 Prof. W. P. King stepped forward and begged the privilege of the floor, and in a few well-chosen and especially appropriate words worthy of a Dewey or a professional, presented to Superintendent Wells a magnificent ring with appropriate Masonic emblems.

Superintendent Wells was much affected by the unexpected gift.

The Committee on Resolutions then offered the following, which were unanimously adopted by the Institute:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Institute are due, and are hereby extended, to Conductor A. C. Burton for his greatly appreciated and successful efforts to make the Institute as helpful and profitable as it has proven to those who have availed themselves of this very excellent opportunity for professional growth and added usefulness.

Resolved, That the Institute deeply appreciates the services of Prof. Ireland, Musical Director, and that we extend to him our sincere thanks for the great inspiration and uplift given to us by his excellent singing.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Institute be given to Miss Beesie Clark for the very efficient service she has rendered us in assisting Professor Ireland by presiding at the piano.

Resolved, That this, the teacher body of Mason county, extend to Superintendent Wells their deepest thanks for his untiring efforts in behalf of both the schools and the teachers of the county, and that we wish for him the best that the future can bring, assured, as we are, that he richly deserves life's choicest blessing.

"My Old Kentucky Home" was sung with spirit, and the Mason County Teachers' Institute of 1909 has "Fina" written after it and takes its place in the catalogue of the past.

Trustees C. F. Owens, Howard Parry, C. J. Hunter, Edward Rhenacker, J. H. Keith, George L. Grant, James A. Wallace and J. J. Bullock were present at one or more of the sessions of the Institute.

H. C. Barnes' name was added to the enrollment, making fifty-six names in all.

COLORED INSTITUTE.

Thursday's session opened with the song, "There is Sunshine in My Soul," responsive reading, XIII. chapter of First Corinthians, a fervent and sympathetic prayer by the Rev. R. H. C. Mitchell and the hymn, "Love Divine."

After quotations on "School Government" by the Institute and the record of the previous day's session was read and approved, Mrs. R. H. C. Mitchell favored the Institute with a solo, "Face to Face."

Then the Institute Instructor, Prof. Frank L. Williams, took up with the Institute for final consideration the last of the three great principles that underlie all instruction, viz., "The Application of General Notions." The Instructor showed clearly in his handling of the developing plan of teaching by having the different members of the Institute to prepare and give lessons on different subjects in accordance with the above method that it requires a trained and experienced person to successfully do it. In this connection he made a strong plea for the individuality of the child, saying that the teacher should respect the thoughts and ideas of the pupil, since they led to incipient action. This development of the individuality of the child he considered the crying and greatest need of the American schools.

After considering abominable the ironclad rules of the city graded school in reference to the promotion of bright pupils, and after discussing the knowledge that is gained from motor activity of the child, the Instructor took up reading in a most comprehensive yet thorough manner. His knowledge of the subject seemed remarkable, and it was the opinion of every one that, while Prof. Williams' grasp of all other subjects that have been discussed this week could not have been better, yet in the handling of reading he seemed to have been at his best. He said, in substance, that the goal in reading was the appreciation for the best literature, a love to read, not only for the pronunciation, the power, thought, etc., but even a love to read for reading's sake; of course, guided by the selection of the best and choicest in the language. He said, by way of conclusion, that reading was the most important thing in our elementary school.

Babies Defy Heat—Remedy FREE

The summer is a very trying time for children. The child that is not robust becomes weaker still from the wilting heat, while the full blooded baby breaks out with sores and pimples because its blood is overheated. Then it also has to contend with the germs in food, water and fruit—the annual summer dangers. If your child has any of the troubles due to summer weather, such as eruptions, itchy skin, worms, diarrhea, "summer complaint," etc., give it a dose of DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN tonight before putting it to bed. When the remedy acts, for it is a wonderful vegetable compound and in the opinion of thousands of mothers the best laxative tonic to be had, the child will quickly recover from its ailment. It will eat better and sleep better; it will want to play and not act peevish. Salts and purgative waters, tablets and pills are too violent for children. DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN is not only pleasant to the taste, but it acts gently and without griping. A single bottle has often saved an entire family from serious sickness, for the basis of health is regular bowel movement and good digestion. A bottle of this remarkable cure can be had of any druggist at 50 cents or $1. Thousands of families are never without it.

Those who have never yet used DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN and would like to make a test of it before buying in the regular way of their druggist, can obtain a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE either for themselves or any member of their family, by sending name and address to the doctor. The sample will be sent to your home free of charge. In this way you can find out what it will do without cost. Also, if the case presents difficulties that doctors and other remedies seem unable to overcome, write a letter to Dr. Caldwell explaining how the person suffers and he will give you his best MEDICAL ADVICE, based on half a century of experience in stomach, liver and bowel diseases, without charge. Women who have children should send for "SUMMER SUGGESTIONS TO MOTHERS," containing the doctor's advice on diet, hygiene, etc., in hot weather—a very important subject. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 507 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

SOME GREAT PLAYS

One of the most difficult tasks for a Manager to perform is to assemble a first class cast, and then to provide them with a repertoire of plays suited to their temperaments. The management of the Hayes-Connelly can proudly point to its repertoire and show the result of great acumen, for seldom have both been so successfully brought together. From farce comedy to melo-drama, mostly all new plays on which heavy royalties are paid, this is the repertoire to be presented here by the company next week. "Paid a Debt," a play without its equal; "A Woman Against an Empire," a story of the fall of the second Empire; Kipling's "The Light That Failed;" "Drink," an adaptation of the great French play, "L'Assomoir;" "Wedded and Parted," a true story from life; "Lena Rivers," that ever popular American romance; "The Private Secretary," one of the funniest of farce comedies, and the English society play, "A Man of Leisure," are some of the plays to be seen here next week.

THIRD OPERATION PREVENTED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill. — "I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was cured." — Mrs. ALVINA SPERLING, 11 Langdon Street, Chicago, Ill.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

"BACK HOME."

To come back, after an absence of more than thirty years, to a home town, hallowed by memories of early childhood and youth, is an experience to move the soul.

More than a quarter of a century passed in a growing country where young cities are mapped, then spring up in a few months to thriving business centers where only wild growths and wilder creatures of earth and air had dwelt, makes it the more striking to come home to a conservative old town like Mayville, to find so many landmarks and so many old friends left.

The little old schoolroom in the back room of the Third Street Methodist Church, where Mrs. Pears used to hold restless little girls and boys at their books for five mornings and afternoons a week, from September to June of every year, is still here. The Church has been painted, but it is, in all other respects, the same.

The McGranaghan home, where the Doctor had his office on the first floor, and the family — from Grandma Ellis to little Lou-Any — lived upstairs, is just East of the Church, where the "dame-school" was, and looks as it did more than thirty years ago, the most marked change along there being the disappearance of the late Mrs. A. M. January's exquisite flower garden between the January mansion and the East wall of the McGranaghan home.

This garden, with its roses, heliotropes, pinks, tuberoses, baby lilies and many other delights, is now only a memory, and, as a memory, is immortal.

So live we all in the hearts that love us!

The old Church opposite the January home is so little changed that it is difficult to realize the thirty-three years of absence; and one sees, with the spiritual eyes, that silver-haired Clergyman who stood up in its pulpit that many years ago, to preach the farewell sermon to the beloved flock he had so faithfully led for thirteen changeless years. Though he is no more — though his body has for years reposed in the cool, silent earth — like that hero, whose memory is embalmed in song, "His soul goes marching on," and still leads upward those he loved when he was here in the flesh.

A second and even a third generation now give back those who are gone to return no more. They look at us with the eyes and speak to us with the voices of those who have passed on "with ceaseless tramp of marching feet" to the Beyond.

A few of the older generation yet remain, looking still so youthful that the years between seem the dream of a night.

It is bewildering.

The dear old friends, seen through the rosy haze of youthful memory, seem the same age as their children and children's children.

And those who, in the old days, were a few years older — belonging to a "grown-up set" and looked up to with childish reverence — have, by some magic, waited by the way, and are now the same age, or even younger, than the children they need to pet or tease or instruct.

As the old town was approached, at the close of day, just a week ago, there were tremors for fear that the beautiful hills so dear to childhood would be shrunken in size and less beautiful than the treasured mental pictures of long ago, but these were needless fears. The fondest memory could not exaggerate the beauty of the fair hills that encircle the town — a green rosary of charm.

All is more beautiful — more "happifying" — than fondest memory's dream. The only note of sadness in the glad home coming is that so many

"—names we loved to hear
Have been carved for many a year
On the tomb!"

CURED TO STAY CURED.

How a Mayville Citizen Found Complete Freedom From Kidney Troubles.

If you suffer from backache—
From urinary disorders—
From any disease of the kidneys,
Be cured to stay cured.
Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures.
Mayville people testify.
Here's one case of it:

M. C. Chisholm, 317 East Second street, Mayville, Ky., says:

"The cure which Doan's Kidney Pills effected in my case some years ago has been permanent, and the testimonial I gave in their favor still holds good. I was bothered a great deal by too frequent passages of the kidney secretions, this being especially annoying at night, when I was obliged to arise several times. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and had only used them a short time when I noticed a marked improvement. They soon cured me, and I have learned of several instances where they have been used with good results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.
